INPECTINE, THE PERSIAN FEVER CHARM. NOR the prevention and cure of Perer and Ague and Bilious Fevers. This wonderful remedy was brought to the knowledge of the present proprietors by a friend who has been a great traveler in Persia and the Holy land. While going down the river Euphrates, he perienced a senere attack of Fever and Ague. On discovering his condition, one of the Boatmen took from his person an Amulet, saying, "Wear this and no Fever will touch you." Although incredulous as to its virtues; he complied, and experienood immediate relief, and has since always found it an effectual protection from all malarious complaints. On further investigation he found that the boatman attributed to it miraculous powers, and said that it could only be obtained from the Priests of the Sun. Sometime afterwards, the gentleman in conversing with a Priest obtained from him the seeret of its preparation, and ascertaized where the medicinal heros were found, of which it was compounded. The wonderful virtues of this article have induced a full belief in the minds of the natives in the miraculous healing powers of their

Since his return to America, It has been tried with the happiest effect by several Ladies and Gontlemen of high character, who have given it the most unqualified praise. This remedy having been a specific in Persia for hundreds of vears, for the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Bilious Fevers-is now offered, to the American people. It will be sent by mail, prepaid, with full directions for use on receipt of one dollar. Principal Depot and Manufactory, 188 Main St. Richmond, Va. Brauch Office, Bank of Commerce Building, New York. Address. JOHN WILCOX & CO. iv 10-wly

VIRGINIA HOSPITALITY:- The following is extracted from a letter written by a member of the Mississippi 11th regiment, at Camp Davis, near Lynchburg, Va., to a friend at home. Says the writer; "But no words of praise can give you an adequate conception of the enthusiastic greeting extended to us by the Virginians. Its warmth and cordiality surpassed our most sanguine anticipations, and cold and listless must have been the heart, which failed to be touched by the brilliant ovations offered us. No spectacle that I ever have witnessed, surpassed in animation and gaiety these gatherings of the beauty and chivalry of the Old Dominion. The men would cheer us, not merely with the lips, but from the heart, give us a cordial grasp of the hand and a few words of kindly welcome, while the sweet smiles of the women subdued hearts which would refuse to acknowledge any other conqueror. The soldiers were literally wreathed with flowers gathered by fair hands, and whose exquisite hues seemed to have caught additional brightness from the light of the eyes that shone upon them. Nor are the Virginians of to-day less renowned for elegant and courteous hospitality than they were 100 years ago. At every depot we were abundantly supplied with all the necessaries and luxuries that could have been desired by the most wistful epicure, and brought back all the recollections of delight and comforts of home."
